HVPR Members at Carlisle Chrysler

Tony and Leslie Scarpelli showcased their 1956 Desoto Adventurer at the Carlisle Chrysler Nationals this weekend from July 11th-13th 2025. The annual event is the largest gathering of Chrysler products anywhere in the world and features approximately 3,000 vehicles. The Scarpelli's car was selected to be on display in the big Carlisle Expo Center with about 50 other cars. Their car was one of 6 DeSotos selected to be in the arena which included cars as far back as the 1920s. The year 2025 marked the 100th anniversary of the Chrysler Corporation which was founded by Walter P. Chrysler in 1925. The entire event attracted thousands of spectators for this special celebration of all eras of Chrysler brands. Beyond the vehicles on display, it includes a Mopar Automotive Flea Market and various contests and activities. HVPR members attending included the Scarpellis, Jonathan Smith, and Stann and Sandy Davoy. (Story and photo by Jonathan Smith).
