HVPR and the Annual Cruise into Fall at the Antique Mall

HVPR Members Tony Scarpelli, Jonathan Smith, Tom Murphy, Frankie Gorrell, and Al Crane participated in the Annual Cruise into Fall at the Antique Mall to raise awareness and funds to provide support to our friends and neighbors in our community who suffer from Alzheimer's Disease. The event was hosted by the Williamsburg Antique Mall on a sunny Fall Day with automotive enthusiasts proudly displaying their vehicles and sharing many smiles, stories and memories with spectators and visitors. Diane Hanson-Johnson of the Alzheimer's Association Southeastern Virginia chapter- which advocates for the needs and rights of those facing dementia, or advancing critical research, and works toward methods of treatment, prevention, and ultimately, a cure. - welcomed folks and provided information on resources available to those with friends or relatives facing Alzheimer's or dementia. Al Crane was show chair. (Story and photos by al Crane)
