Antique License Plate Display

2026 AACA Founders Tour Participants were treated to a beautiful exhibit of Virginia Antique Licence Plates in the lobby of York Hall 301 Main Street, Yorktown, VA 23690 when they visited on Saturday September 12 2026. The Exhibit was displayed by the York County Historical Museum which is located in the basement of the Building. The Exhibit will be on display thru October 5.

York Hall info: <https://www.visit-yorktown.org/213/Gallery-at-York-Hall>

Thank You for Helping with the Tour!

A week ago today in Yorktown, we were making the "Founders Tour" a success. Everything went without a hitch, making - in my humble opinion - the day spent in Yorktown the best, smoothest running day of the entire tour. So, THANK YOU for helping out. Your help was greatly appreciated. --Greg Smith.

ODMA Fall Tour Scheduled for October 22-24

Due to circumstances beyond our control, the ODMA Fall Tour has been rescheduled, and as a result, is RAPIDLY approaching. The dates are now October 22-24 and it promises to highlight some delightful, hidden historic sites throughout the Gloucester, Yorktown and Gwynn's Island areas! At a cost of $68 per person and a hotel cost of $149 per night, participation at a reasonable cost is part of the fun!! We would appreciate it if after you sign up, you would please share this email and flyer to your fellow members and friends as soon as possible. For more information about ODMA, the website is odma.aaca.org. The Registration Form & Flyer are also available as a download online there and I have also attached them to this email for your use. We look forward to seeing you again!

Car Display at Harper's Station

A nice Tuesday afternoon, on September 15, 2026 brought four classic car owners to the Assisted Living facility of Harper Station Yorktown. The patients & residents enjoyed seeing the 50's & 60's classics and talking to each owner. Thanks to Activity Director Sam for hosting and providing refreshments & snacks. Thanks to Tom & Cindy Heldreth, Perry Preuett, Tony Scarpelli, & John Atkinson for participating. (Story and photos by John Atkinson)
